Prayer Starters for the Christian Writer

DAY ONE

Father in Heaven, You are the Author of life, Who spoke the universe into existence (Heb. 11:3). Thank You! While I fail to grasp the magnitude of Your abilities, please grant me words to communicate Your wonders...

DAY TWO

Lord Jesus, You are the Word made flesh (Jn. 1:14). Please forgive me for the times I rely on myself instead of You for words to write. I'm grateful for Your patient working in me. Please equip me to express Your character...

DAY THREE

Father in Heaven, You are glorious! I confess I'm often distracted by things of this world and my own desires – thank You for redirecting my focus back to You. Guide me by the Holy Spirit as I express biblical truths...

DAY FOUR

Father in Heaven, You are worthy. Please forgive me for frequently caring more about growing my platform than expanding Your kingdom. I appreciate Your gentle corrections and seek a deeper devotion to You...

DAY FIVE

Father in Heaven, You are the God of hope (Rom. 15:13). Sometimes I forget the hopelessness many people carry, so thank You for reminding me. Enable me to write content that elevates Christ and invites readers to Him...

DAY SIX

Father in Heaven, You are excellent in Your timing and ways. Though I struggle with patience on this writing journey, I know You hold control over every detail. Thank You. Please lead me as I seek publication...

DAY SEVEN

Father in Heaven, You are faithful – please forgive me for moments of wavering trust. I treasure and thank You for Your presence as I write. Help me cling to Ps. 138:8, “The LORD will accomplish what concerns me...”
